TALENT AGENTS

Tips from TAMAC (Talent Agents & Managers Association of Canada) www.tamac.ca

- reputable agents will not require you pay upfront fees
- agents receive commission when you work, usually around 15% on film/television and 10% on theatre
- go away and think about it before entering an agreement with an agent and be sure that the contract includes a cancellation clause for both parties (you/agency)

Additional Tips from TAPA

- some agencies only accept hard copy submissions through regular mail (headshot & resume)
- some agencies only accept digital submissions through email/their website
